Terms & Conditions for Training Seminars

- Based upon published minimum attendee quantities, Doppelmayr CTEC reserves the right to cancel any Seminar if sufficient attendee registration quantities are not received by the published registration deadline;
- Customers should delay commitment of travel and lodging arrangements until receipt of confirmation of class registration from Doppelmayr CTEC. Registration deadline is typically 2 weeks prior to the actual Seminar;
- Unless specifically identified, the expense of travel, lodging, meals, entertainment, etc. is not included in the Seminar price and is the responsibility of the individual attendee(s) or their sponsoring employer;
- All Seminars are intended to improve the knowledge base of the attendee(s). Proper implementation and application of techniques presented must be interfaced with Manual requirements and safe industry practices. Doppelmayr CTEC is not responsible for damage to equipment or injury to guests or personnel resulting from the improper application of techniques presented during the Seminar;
- Some Seminars require the direct involvement/interface of attendee(s) with mechanical components. Doppelmayr CTEC emphasizes safety and caution when engaged in such activities but is not responsible for personal negligence or unsafe practices by attendee(s) resulting in injury;
- Attendee(s) engaging in any activity outside of the classroom Seminar are considered to be strictly voluntary on behalf of the attendee(s) and are not the responsibility of Doppelmayr CTEC;
- Actions by any attendee(s) determined to be disruptive to the Seminar will be cause for immediate expulsion of the attendee(s) from the Seminar without refund.
